

For your intranet or to email to your colleagues!

Subject: Pension Dilemmas

<Greeting>,

Eating out every week or saving for the future? Your pension may seem far away, but with every step you take today, you save yourself a lot of stress later on. And bring your goals closer.

Soon you will finish your working life and have time for other activities. You don't want to be caught off guard. If you take action now, it can pay off for later on! Don't worry, you will quickly gain insight into the income you can expect later. Yes, even if your pension feels very far away.

Log in to your personal online pension environment and make choices!

In your personal pension environment mijn.nn Income Later, you can view your pension(s) with Nationale-Nederlanden. In a few steps, you will gain insight into your total income for later. And whether that is enough. You will also be guided step by step to make choices for your pension.

<Closing>